Prayer for Silent Meditation

We encourage you to use the moments preceding the commencement of holy worship in quiet meditation and preparation. Toward that end we offer the prayer below as food for thought.

Our Father in heaven, deliver us we pray from all manner of evil, whether it touches our body or soul, our property or good name, and at last when the hour of death shall come, grant us a blessed end and graciously take us from this vale of sorrow to Yourself in heaven, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Martin Luther, AD 1483-1546

Prayer of Confession Kneel (as able)

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men, we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness which we from time to time most grievously have committed by thought, word, and deed, against your divine majesty, provoking most justly your wrath and indignation against us: we do earnestly repent and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings. The remembrance of them is grievous to us; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father, for your Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake. Forgive us all that is past and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. The First English Prayer Book, 1549

* Assurance of Pardon

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Deal bountifully with your servants that we may live and keep your word. Open our eyes that we may behold wondrous things out of your law. We are but sojourners on earth; hide not your commandments from us! Our souls are consumed with longing for your rules at all times. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, our only comfort, our hope, our righteousness, our strength and sure defense, kindle in our hearts a desire, hunger, and thirst for the eternal food of the soul, your true body and blood, that we may gladly and frequently receive the Supper in bread and wine, confessing our sins, relying on you to strengthen and assure us until life's journey ends and we come to you in our heavenly homeland to see you face to face and dwell with you forevermore.
